Featuring guitarist Nels Cline

Active Vapor Recovery combines extreme Jazz, avant funk, liquid Americana and skronk blues. Think - James Brown meets Sun Ra on a front porch somewhere in rural Montana. The Scot Ray Quintet features Scot's amazing multiphonic trombone, Nels Cline on electric guitars, Alex Cline on drums, Steuart Liebig on contrabass guitars and Jeff Gauthier on electric violin. Ray quit his long-standing gig with the Brian Setzer Orchestra to pursue his musical dreams, and has carved out a unique niche on the L.A. New Music scene.

"Ray artfully melds hard-core rock beats and complex time signatures with sonorous passages and brazen soloing...bright choruses, capricious escapades and ethereal dreamscapes."
- All About Jazz, Glenn Astarita

"Hallucinatory. If you like to intellectualize and dig mystery in your music, this is it. There are some really stellar and tender melodies by Ray." - Jazz Review, Denai Banks
